CCLD Tuition Scholarship Application

Eligibility: The $1,500.00 scholarship is open to student members of CCLD currently enrolled in teacher-preparation programs in an accredited college or university in Colorado. Applicants must be working towards a generalist license and have completed at least one half of their program plan of study. Applicants must have an overall-cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher and a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or higher in their Special Education coursework.

Benefits: Recipients also receive a one-year student membership renewal to CLD and CCLD ($45.00) in addition to the $1,500.00 scholarship.

Required Documents for Consideration:

- Documentation of residency:
 - Attach the most recent tuition statement from school of attendance indicating that in-state tuition has been applied
- Most recent official, sealed college transcript (Students in a post-baccalaureate program must also include a sealed transcript of undergraduate study)
- Three letters of recommendation:
 - Two letters must be from professors in the Special Education program and one must address the applicant's status with his/her plan of study.
 - The third letter must be from a site supervisor and speak to the applicant's ability to work with children/youth and colleagues.
- 500 word essay: "What Makes an Effective Teacher for Students with Learning Disabilities?"
- Applicant's background:
 - Write a brief autobiography (maximum 500 words) describing your motivation for pursuing a degree in special education, including information about personal experiences, role models or influences, your interests and personal strengths that will enhance your teaching skills.
