

Colorado Council of Learning Disabilities (CCLD)

2019 Para-educator of the Year

Deadline: April 10, 2019

Description:

Each year, the Colorado Council for Learning Disabilities (CCLD) selects outstanding para-educators who support students with learning disabilities. They provide support and instruction to students, and they often help to modify curriculum and ensure that accommodations are in place for students.

Criteria for Nomination:

- Employed as a para-educator supporting students with learning disabilities for at least three years

Award:

The recipient will also receive recognition in both national and Colorado communication outlets (newsletter and website) throughout the year. CCLD will provide a complimentary lunch for the recipient and one guest in addition to a gift from the CCLD Board.
