

Colorado Council of Learning Disabilities (CCLD)

2019 Teacher of the Year

Deadline: April 10, 2019

Description:

Each year, the Colorado Council for Learning Disabilities (CCLD) recognizes an outstanding teacher who consistently provides quality instruction to students with learning disabilities. This teacher provides direct services to students. He/she is dedicated to implementing evidence-based instructional practices and collaborating with others to improve the quality of education for students with learning disabilities.

Criteria for Nomination:

- Be a member of the Colorado Council of Learning Disabilities, or join as part of the application
- Provide direct services to students with learning disabilities
- Implement and advocate for evidenced-based instructional practices that result in significant gains in achievement for children, adolescents or adults who struggle academically

Award:

The recipient will be a guest of the national Council for Learning Disabilities (CLD) annual conference with registration, airfare and hotel accommodations provided. Click Here to learn more! The recipient will also receive recognition in both national and Colorado communication outlets (newsletter and website) throughout the year. In addition, a one-year membership renewal to CLD will be provided.

Click Here to Apply